

I am writing to you to introduce to you an exciting new publication focusing on the fields of Archaeology, Heritage and Egyptology: The Heritage of Egypt Magazine.

The Heritage of Egypt was launched in 2008 and is the first publication relating to the history of Egypt that is edited, produced and owned in Egypt; this gives the publication a unique perspective on the complex histories of ancient and modern Egypt.

The Heritage of Egypt is published three times a year; in January, May & September in Egypt, however it has a wide international reach.

With an initial print run of 1,500 copies The Heritage of Egypt reaches thousands of readers through direct sales in Egypt and the provision of copies to archaeological societies in the United Kingdom.

The Heritage of Egypt is The History, Archaeology and Legacy of Egypt.

Here is the link if you would like to take a look

<http://168.144.29.127/websites/alhadara/productsview.asp?categoryname=97>

Would you like to contribute to our magazine? The magazine accepts contributions from suitably academically qualified people in their field (graduates only please). If you have any questions or would like to see a hard copy of the magazine, please let us know and we will advise you how to get a copy or we can mail a copy to your address.