Job Opening

The Institute of Egyptology, Faculty of Historical and Cultural Studies, at the University of Vienna welcomes applications for a

Research Position (80% Post Doc / 32 hours per week)

The position is assigned to the research project Ägyptologische Perspektiven auf ausgewählte Axiome einer historischen Text- und Bildnarratologie, which is funded by the Jubiläumsfonds of the Austrian National Bank. The position starts December 1st, 2019 and has a duration of 24 months.

Successful applicants hold a PhD in Egyptian philology or visual culture and are well trained in approaching Egyptological topics from an interdisciplinary perspective. Ideally, they are familiar with transmedial narrative theory. The successful position holder is expected to work either on the textual or the visual media part of the project („voices in texts“ or „visual narratives“). For further questions please contact the project leader: gerald.moers@univie.ac.at.

Please send your applications as single pdf-file (including a letter of motivation, CV, copies of degrees, and a list of publications which highlights up to two relevant items) only per E-mail to aegyptologie@univie.ac.at. The offer closes on Sunday, September 22nd, 2019.
