

Online Lecture Series

Egypt, Land of Writing(s)

University of Liege

March 24, 2022 (8pm CET): Dimitri Laboury & Jean Winand (Uliège)

Neo-hieroglyphs in the Prince-Bishopric of Liege during the Renaissance

Click here to join the meeting

April 7, 2022 (8pm CET): Claude Rilly (CNRS-LLACAN, EPHE)

When Kushites (nearly) adopted the Egyptian writing system. Classifiers in transcriptions of Napatan names.

Click here to join the meeting

April 14, 2022 (8pm CET): Philipp Seyr (Uliège)

The ancient Egyptian perception of placenames and their phonological development: a toponymic journey to Upper Egypt

Click here to join the meeting

April 28, 2022 (8pm CET): Marwan Kilani (University of Geneva)

When one orthography is not enough: Group Writing Function and Functioning

Click here to join the meeting

May 12, 2022 (8pm CET): Vincent Morel (UMR 8546, Paris)

Networking desert places & writing practices, or how to write an early history of Egypt's central eastern Desert

Click here to join the meeting

May 19, 2022 (8pm CET): Renaud Pietri (Uliège)

Papyrus anastylosis and paleography: Case studies from Deir el-Medina

Click here to join the meeting

June 2, 2022 (8pm CET): Jana Myňarová (Charles University Prague)

Egypt or the Near East? A cuneiform tradition in the Nile Valley

Click here to join the meeting