

Colloquium in the context of the exhibition: “Bes, kleine god in het Oude Egypte” / Amsterdam 6-7 March 2020

Allard Pierson

Oude Turfmarkt 127-129 / 1012 GC Amsterdam

LECTURE PROGRAMME

Friday 6 March

09:30 09:45 Opening

09:45 10:30 Judith Weingarten: The daemon Beset on Middle Minoan Crete: why the female and not the male?

10:30 11:15 Livia Bergerot: Bès. À propos d'un pilier cultuel divin

11:15 12:00 Rita Lucarelli: Bes-like figures in the Book of the Dead

12:00 12:45 Olaf E. Kaper: Bes and Tutu: similarities and differences between two small Egyptian gods

12:45 14:00 Lunch break

14:00 14:45 Maarten Raven: Women's beds from Deir el-Medina: an update

14:45 15:30 Veit Vaelske: Bes in Late Period Delta Sanctuaries

15:30 16:15 Joachim F. Quack: Some observations on Egyptian amulets, especially those of Bes, and their social and historical setting

16:15 17:00 Hedwig Györy: Pataikos amulets – A Bubastite example

Saturday 7 March

10:30 11:15 Bénédicte Lloyer: Bes and the Dwarfs in the Old Kingdom

11:15 12:00 Christian E. Loeben: Horus-Cippi and Bes

12:00 12:15 break

12:15 13:00 Pavel Onderka: Bes in Nubia: The Myth of the Distant Goddess

13:00 13:45 Marieke van den Doel: Bes redivivus: the afterlife of an Egyptian demon in Early Modern Europe

Please register for attendance with Prof.dr. Olaf Kaper, o.e.kaper@hum.leidenuiv.nl